

Algerian Reflections (4) by Dr Lyndon Bouah

Last month the event ended in Oran, Algeria with powerful performances by our South African Representatives. IM Daniel Cawdery astounded the continent when he beat Grandmasters Adly and El Gindy and drew with SM Amin. He ended joint first but second on tie break just missing out on a possible Grandmaster title.

Jack Van Zyll Rudd and Freddy Odendaal played out of their skin and showed that given the opportunities that they would be able to take on the opposition. Jack of surprised everyone when he beat IM Farahat in round one and I suppose after that no one was going to miss with the kid!

2017 AFRICAN INDIVIDUAL CHESS CHAMPIONSHIPS – LADIES

WIM Jesse February made the running in this event when she brilliantly beat WGM Mona Khaled in round one. The event was evenly poised for a long time but this event was probably Jesse's break through event. She just ran out of steam towards the end but she represented South Africa with distinction. A bronze medal and joint first is an excellent result. Well done Jesse!

The Rapid and Blitz events were dominated by the Egyptian players who literally took most of the cash and prizes on offer. I have for your records (with the assistance of Mr. Leon De Jager) placed all the event final standings here for your perusal and study. Our players who wish to do well on the continent must learn to study the games of the players here as this will be their test.

Regards,

Dr Lyndon Bouah
